

FIRST SEMESTER 2019-2020

Course Handout Part II

01-08-2019

In addition to part-I (General Handout for all courses appended to the time table) this portion gives further specific details regarding the course.

Course No. : HSS F322
Course Title : Social and Political Ecology
Instructor-in-charge : Lavanya Suresh

Scope and Objective of the Course:

Environmental History and Social construction of nature; Theoretical perspectives on Natural Resource use; Ecological Development; Natural Resource Governance; Ecological Identity and Social Movement-Gender-based dimensions; Degradation and Marginalization; Conservation and Control; Ecotourism; Urban Ecology; Regional case studies.

Social and Political ecology examines the politics of the environment and the social responses to the politics. The course would provide students awareness of contemporary debates on the issue of environment through case studies, movements and policies. This would enable students to have a broader understanding of issues related to policies and governance of natural resources.
