

ACADEMIC-GRADUATE STUDIES AND RESEARCH DIVISION
FIRST/SECOND SEMESTER 2020-2021
COURSE HANDOUT

In addition to part I (General Handout for all courses appended to the Time table) this portion gives further specific details regarding the course.

Course No : BITS C790T
Course Title : INDEPENDENT STUDY
Instructor In-Charge : Associate Dean, AGSRD
Instructor(s) : Supervisor(s)/Mentor(s)

1. Scope and Objective of the Course: The aim of this course is to develop student's expertise in the art of oral presentation of his/her research work. It also aims to train students in the art of presentation of their scientific work at seminars etc.

2. Operation of the course: The student should immediately interact with his/her supervisor(s)/mentor and decide the topics for the seminar to be presented during the semester. Each semester, the DRC will organize seminars by Ph.D. students to which members of the DAC (as also members of relevant departments) will be invited. A student will give at least two seminars. In case supervisor(s)/mentor desires, he/she may ask his/her students to present more than two seminars also, and he/she would then proportionally assign marks for each seminar and record the Grades/marks in evaluation form broadly in two components. Each component may have more than one seminar.

4. Evaluation

Component	Weightage	Date of Completion
Seminar-1	50%	8 th week of the semester/ 4 th week of summer term
Seminar-2	50%	Last week of class work in the semester/term

The evaluation apart from other components will be based on the following:

1. Technical contents in the presentation
2. Depth of knowledge in the subject
3. Style of presentation (logical development of the subject, due emphasis on salient features, presentation techniques, etc.)
4. Response to questions (quick grasp and answer to the point)
5. Written report

5. Mid-semester Grading: The Supervisor/mentor will submit the mid-semester grades after the completion of seminar component to DRC.

6. End-semester Grading: The Supervisor/mentor will submit the mid-semester grades after the completion of seminar component to DRC.
