1. It also gives an opportunity to a student to comprehend the knowledge of his/her subject and apply it to the given problem.

2. Operation of the course: The student should immediately chalk-out a plan of work for the entire semester and prepare a detailed outline of the work in consultation with his/her Supervisor(s). The Supervisor(s) will spell out the objectives and expected rate of progress. The detailed outline of work must include a time schedule clearly indicating the intermediate milestone and the estimated time when these are to be reached.

3. Evaluation: The evaluation in this course is essentially individual oriented. At the end of Semester/Term, Supervisor(s) will give an interim grade. The suggested instruments for evaluation are given below.

1. Detailed outline of work
2. Oral presentation
