ACADEMIC-GRADUATE STUDIES AND RESEARCH DIVISION
FIRST/SECOND SEMESTER 2020-2021
COURSE HANDOUT

In addition to part I (General Handout for all courses appended to the Time table) this portion gives further specific details regarding the course.

Course No   : BITS C799T
Course Title   : Ph.D. THESIS
Instructor In-Charge : Associate Dean, AGSRD
Instructor(s)   : Supervisor(s)/Mentor(s)

1. Scope and Objective of the Course: The aim of the thesis course is to impart training in the methodology of research, to cultivate logical and creative thinking and to make the student express his/her findings in the form of a scientific report. It also gives an opportunity to a student to comprehend the knowledge of his/her subject and apply it to the given problem.

2. Operation of the course: The student should immediately chalk-out a plan of work for the entire semester and prepare a detailed outline of the work in consultation with his/her Supervisor(s). The Supervisor(s) will spell out the objectives and expected rate of progress. The detailed outline of work must include a time schedule clearly indicating the intermediate milestone and the estimated time when these are to be reached.

3. Evaluation: The evaluation in this course is essentially individual oriented. At the end of Semester/Term, Supervisor(s) will give an interim grade. The suggested instruments for evaluation are given below.

1. Detailed outline of work
2. Oral presentation
3. Written report
4. Progress of the work, findings & results.

The reports etc. should be submitted to the Supervisor(s). Candidate permitted to work without the benefit of a supervisor or permitted to work at an outside center, should send one copy of each report along with the final evaluation form to the HoD through the respective Supervisor(s) so as to reach well before the day on which semester/term ends.
